Omar Ali

Senior Frontend Developer at KIWE with expertise in Vue.js and React.js

10th of Ramadan, Sharkia, Egypt

Summary

iMOX leverages my expertise as a Full-stack Developer, focusing on Vue.js and React.js to deliver scalable, user-centric solutions. My work emphasizes collaboration with cross-functional teams to design and implement efficient web applications, aligning with organizational goals.

Graduating from Cairo University with a degree in Information Systems shaped my foundation in computing and artificial intelligence, which I integrate into my development practices. Passionate about advancing my backend knowledge, I explore Node.js and Django to complement my frontend proficiency.
